

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/6/2022 6:23:13 PM

First name: Sarah

Last name: morgan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Mature forests do so much more than sequester carbon, they regulate moisture and weather and are a functional part of our climate. There are too many gone already. They are not a product they are a living system hosting wildlife that defines the place we live and deserves respect.