

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/23/2022 12:00:00 AM

First name: Dawn

Last name: Serra

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Not one single tree that is mature---80 or more years old---should be cut down on our national forests. Time is out---we need to take the climate crisis seriously and stop putting profits before lives, our own and that of other species. The best way to do this is let trees grow old, to let the forests act as a carbon sink.
Thank you.