Comments: As a US resident, I haven't had the pleasure of visiting Montana, including the forests of Black Ram. I intend on doing so in the future, but even if I don't, it's an unforgivable travesty to pillage this monument to the glorious Earth that is being destroyed every day. I implore you to stop this madness intended only to 'fatten' pockets and reap little in exchange for decimating a global treasure. Do what is right for all the citizens of the world!

With respect,

Kathleen A Lester
