

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/15/2022 12:54:36 PM

First name: Sara

Last name: Steelman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As we watch the effects of climate change proliferate, the importance of protecting trees and their ecosystem functions including carbon capture becomes even more obvious. Declaring trees more than 80 years old to be mature will help to protect forests across the country, and I encourage you to do so.