

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/18/2022 3:01:13 PM

First name: James

Last name: Neu

Organization: 350.Eug

Title: Volunteer

Comments: We need to stop cutting timber on federal and state lands as it is detrimental to fish habitat, soil and wildlife ecology. The logging roads increase soil erosion and stream turbidity in an already fragile ecosystem due to climate change. Science has proven that carbon sequestration from trees is necessary to offset the effects of anthropogenic processes. Thank you for your consideration.