

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/24/2022 6:35:20 PM

First name: Cheryl

Last name: Wagner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To those concerned,

It is imperative that this administration restore the protections to mature and old-growth forests to protect the remaining habitat for old-growth dependent wildlife and ecosystems. These trees are essential for supporting biodiversity, clean water and native fish. They are a linchpin in our fight against climate change as they absorb and store huge amounts of CO<sub>2</sub> gas through the process of photosynthesis. They are treasures.