

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/29/2022 3:51:05 PM

First name: Diane

Last name: Dwyer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: For the sake of the planet and all species, we must accurately identify and permanently protect all old growth and mature trees from being cut down. Old growth forests will regulate themselves in the best interest of their environment. We must preserve and protect all self-sustaining natural spaces. They will inherently keep the eco-system in balance. Preserving them will restore balance to our beloved planet Earth. Do not allow the cutting of old-growth and mature trees.