

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/31/2022 3:12:41 AM

First name: Kim

Last name: Judkins

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The biggest problem is logging old growth and mature forests with trees in excess of 80 years old. These forests with old trees are store carbon, are more fire resistant and in many cases are the only habitat for certain endangered animals. Tall, old trees keep rivers and streams cool and foster salmon spawning. Please set aside our oldest forest to protect our climate and biodiversity. Preferably all logging on public forests should stop. Thank you.