

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/3/2022 5:06:30 PM

First name: Riggs

Last name: Gaultney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This will put more stress on an already overcrowded area. Allowing the lodge to update their current facilities is something the public can understand. However, like many others, I oppose the expansion of new buildings that will only profit an out of state company and will further encroach an environment that is under a lot of stress. Sacrificing our protected forests for profit is out of the question. There is no other way to describe this venture and this cannot seriously even be remotely considered.