Comments: I just read about the proposal to expand the Holland Lake Lodge into a mega resort. Undoubtedly, the resort will be for well-heeled tourists from out of state, but my main objection is that Holland Lake will no longer be for the locals who have used it for over 100 years as a relatively quiet place to recreate and enjoy the state as it used to be before being discovered by large corporations. Part of its charm is that it is far enough away from large towns to be relatively undiscovered by tourists, and we Montanans want it to remain that way. Montana is being overrun by out-of-staters who have turned charming towns like Whitefish into places for the rich. Please do not let the same happen to Holland Lake.
