Comments: Holland Lake has long been a favorite place for my family, and many others, to spend time outdoors. It is a place where people come from all over the state and country to enjoy a true example of the beauty Montana has to offer. Aside from the beauty, the appeal is that it is mostly undeveloped. Holland Lake Lodge is a quaint, unobtrusive business that brings people and some commerce, but doesn't currently eclipse the peace and pristine nature of the area. In recent years it had become a more popular destination, making it difficult for Montanans to obtain a camping spot. The proposed expansion would further increase crowding. Making it a commercial area would further exacerbate the crowding issue. If there are that many extra lodge guests and employees, there won't be enough space for waterfront access for them, let alone non-paying (or campground fee-paying) campers, hikers, kayakers, etc. who are local Montanans. I am strongly against this proposed expansion. Please consider the voices of many concerned Montanans and reject third proposal.
