Comments: I personally think it's fine to make improvements to the existing lodge, but I do not think that we should be considering any expansions, simply because the area is already busy and overpopulated enough as it is, and I don't see how that would be doing anything except for contributing to the problem. If anything, the focus needs to be on restoring more natural habitat and minimizing structures of any kind on the lake, so that day users can come and enjoy the lake and it's natural beauty as it is.
