Comments: To be a viable business to serve the public and community, there is much to be improved. I figure a lot of planning and thought have gone into this project.

One thing you might consider adding is a hostel facility. Holland Lake is the entry/exit spot for numerous hikers into the Bob. Currently one jumps into the lake, stops by the Lodge for a beer then continues homeward. A hostel would provide a great beginning/ ending spot. Perhaps near the employee housing.

New Zealand, perhaps the A1 spot in the world for travel, is an excellent example of how this would not only work but be profitable for the business.
