

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/11/2022 8:01:42 PM

First name: Sam

Last name: Stier

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This proposal is a clear case of over-development and I hope the Forest Service is wise enough to reject it. To begin with, it comes with the cost to the natural environment. Second, it is socially skewed, benefitting the lodge owners and those who can afford to stay there, above the larger majority of people who come to the lake to experience the natural world and leave nothing but footprints.