Comments: I believe an expansion would spoil the magic of holland lake. It's already impossible to reserve a campsite. It is a precious area that needs protection and respect. Turning it into a resort is an awful idea. Once a relative unknown lake, it has become so busy with boats and visitors...adding a resort would ruin any remaining natural splendor. I myself have witnessed 2 nesting loon pairs on holland lake summer 2022. How could a lake this small safely host a resort? Updating the historic established LODGE and grounds is reasonable, adding 52 rooms is out of control and obviously greedy. Montana is the last best place, let it remain so. Take your resort elsewhere.
