

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/14/2022 2:59:06 PM

First name: Amy

Last name: Fortenberry

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am concerned about the density of the proposed project. While I generally support the right for people to develop their land, this is being done on public land and requires proper planning. The addition of buildings and the huge increase in potential overnight guests should constitute a change of service requiring environmental impact studies and any other typical requirements for a new project. Those findings will help determine how to proceed.