Comments: I am against this proposed sale. We have seen too many places in Montana turned into tourist destinations already. If this trend continues, there won't be any pristine places left that aren't destroyed by commercialization. I, for one, am sick of this destruction of our way of life. Montana isn't Disneyland. We live here because it truly is the last best place. Don't destroy what we love. Feel free to come visit, but leave it the way you found it.
