Comments: Our family has camped at Holland Lake and it offers a beautiful Montana feeling campground. It is busy already and in high demand due to its great recreational options. Developing this area will over run the water recreation and hiking options. It will loose the Montana feel of small lake camping and getting away from the big resort fell. Also the loss of 200 plus trees is a real shame.

Please consider the long term affect such s development would bring to this wonderful lake area. Thanks for listening.
