

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/14/2022 8:35:29 PM

First name: Pete

Last name: Reisenauer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This is sad to say the least. Montana forest service lands should not be turned over to out of state agents to build million dollar resorts most montanas will never be able to afford or get to use. And to top it off will take away from recreation in the area. Look at Georgetown lake in anaconda. Very few access points anymore. Million dollar cabins where campgrounds once sat. Vote no on out of state entities taking over Montana forest service lands