

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/15/2022 6:27:19 PM

First name: Steve

Last name: Frith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I feel the job of the US Forest Service is to manage the public resources for longevity as we are simply stewards of the land. The land is not ours but rather our turn. I encourage projects that help the public access and enjoy nature but the focus of this project seems to be private corporation profits. This might provide short term gain for the USFS in finances but has negative long term implications for the quality of the land and opens the door for long term destruction of nature.