

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/15/2022 7:48:21 PM

First name: Steven

Last name: Alexander

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have spent many days up at Holland Lake and I am mortified that the National Forest Service would even consider allowing a wealthy developer to destroy one of Montanas hidden gems. It doesn't matter how much NFS is being offered by this developer. It will never make up the loss on this priceless location. It should be open to all who should enjoy it. Not just those who can afford it. Keep Montana free of elitism and natural destruction. Please.