

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/15/2022 9:05:41 PM

First name: Ayla

Last name: Skidmore

Organization:

Title:

Comments: My family and I have been in montana for decades. One of the best parts about living in montana is that we have access to beautiful locations to relax and recreate. Unfortunately in recent years the rich history of montana has been slowly erased by big companies and out of state entities, developing these precious lands, in the name of profit. The majority of locals cannot afford fancy lodges and resorts. Allowing this land to be developed would be wrong and irresponsible.