Comments: Do not sell our land! Holland Lake should be a historical landmark. Our Federal Lands are not for sale. Since one of the main entrances to the Bob Marshall Wilderness starts at Holland Lake are we going to sell it too? It alone has 1,009,356 acres. Combined with the Great Bear Wilderness and the Scapegoat Wilderness it comprises of more than 1.5 million acres of uninhabited wild land.

This proposed Corporation planning to tear down most of the historical buildings and build a huge resort forever changing a historic quiet piece of Montana that has been enjoyed by generations of local Montanans since the 1920's is completely unacceptable. We do not need a commercial entity establishing itself on Holland Lake. This is an exploitation of our Treasure State. It will be yet another place that locals would not enjoy. How can you build a huge resort next to a trail that follows our first basic rule. Leave no Trace. Leave Montana alone!
