

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/16/2022 3:21:04 AM

First name: Stephanie

Last name: Davison

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear Forest Service,

Tripling density in the proposed Holland Lake project will increase traffic and vehicle emissions, negatively affecting the environment. In addition the increase in numbers (triple from 50 to 156) will negatively affect an already-busy summer lake with more boats, more noise, more gasoline leaking into the lake and may reduce the number of fish. It's a bad idea and more consideration should be given to this project's environmental impact.