

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/16/2022 1:58:05 PM

First name: Danielle

Last name: Zanni

Organization:

Title:

Comments: In response to the proposed development at Holland Lake, as a Montana resident I feel that the project is too large and extreme in scope for the setting. Holland Lake is host to nesting loons and without more study their habitat will most likely be disrupted. In addition it appears that approximately 200 old growth trees will likely have to be removed to accommodate future construction. I do not support this new development plan in its current state.