Comments: Having lived all over the Pacific Northwest for the last 40 years, I've seen many recreation areas fall prey to these large corporate companies that buy up these areas while lying to the communities around these areas that they are going to improve the current facilities. This is never the case. Money is their only care and the changes they make only destroy the local community and price out locals from these areas. POWDR is one such organization that has ruined numerous ski resorts and outdoor activity areas all across the western United States. They seek exclusivity and cater only to the wealthy while making these areas unobtainable to the people who have enjoyed them for generations. Please do the right thing and do not allow this to happen to the Holland lake recreation area.
