Comments: Are you seriously going through the approval process on this monstrosity? Are you as the Flathead National Forest auditioning for a spot on "Yellowstone" with Kevin Costner and all his rich buddies? I guess on paper this increases public access to Holland Lake by providing more people an opportunity to ...stay?... in a resort by the Lake. You could justify this project in that light if you are particularly good at spin. For most people in this comment section the recognition is that this project will DEGRADE the character of Holland Lake and the surrounding area. Why not serve the Public by adding more trail crews to maintain the network of access we have already in place, rather than this ham-handed and ill-advised Big Money Boondoggle? Paws Up offers a great alternative for the well-financed, they don't need another "bucket list" destination. In case it isn't clear, here it is in clear, plain-text American English: I do not support the development of the Holland Lake Lodge Facility Improvement and Expansion #61746
