Comments: This is Francis Meagher and I've lived in Montana for 68 years. I realize we are a tourist state but there's a limit to how we should share it. I think this is beyond that limit. We are catering too much to the wealthy and forgetting about the people that want to come here and have true outdoor adventures and experiences, including Montanans. I hope our forest service officials and state representatives would agree with me. Please keep Montana Montana.
