

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2022 1:46:59 AM

First name: Barbara

Last name: Birse

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly object to this project. To turn a small, intimate getaway into the monstrosity that is being proposed is to completely ruin the special charm that Holland Lake currently has. It goes against everything people love about the unique place that is Montana. I don't want Montana or any other beautiful national forest lands in this country turned into big resorts. Must we destroy all the small, quiet refuges left in the wild places just for the sake of money?