Comments: To the U.S. Forest Service,

As someone who has enjoyed snowshoeing Holland Lake Falls trail for several years, I oppose the proposal to expand Holland Lake Lodge. Large companies have already created crowded and commercial opportunities in the Flathead, Mission and Missoula valleys. The Swan Valley is a final refuge where people can find peace and quiet, away from the crowds. I support capitalism, but not everything has to be commercialized.

If POWDR wants to build a resort, there are plenty of private properties for them to develop without ruining a commonly held piece of national forest that many enjoy.
