Comments: To whom it may concern:

This is Montana, the last best place. I understand tourism is a huge income driver for us, but this isn't the way. Folks who come here come to get away from it all. The hustle and bustle of the everyday city life. Each day this state loses the beauty we all love so much. I can not sit back and watch another beautiful lake become polluted with garbage from visitors. Let's be honest we all know for a fact once a place become a commercialized property it loses all magic. I beg of you. Please, PLEASE do NOT disappoint your ancestors. Your grand parents. Your future generations, by making this about just money. Let preserve the beauty of our state. It's up to you.
