

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/24/2022 7:00:02 PM

First name: Sharon

Last name: Mackie-Wendel

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Seeley-Swan Valley is a beautiful relatively untouched piece of Montana. All people rich or poor can come and enjoy this hidden gem. We have beautiful wildlife and wilderness. Some of the wildlife is endangered species. These animals and plants deserve an underdeveloped area to live in. Holland Lake has a rich history and should also be preserved. Stop commercializing this area for the rich. All people and animals should be able to enjoy the area.