Comments: I was born and raised in the Flathead Valley and grew up, going camping at Holland Lake every summer. Some of my most fond memories are being there with friends and family to enjoy time away. Time to relax and take in the serene nature. You could wake up in the morning only hearing the birds chirping and a fire crackling. The lake as calm and smooth as glass. We would hike to the falls whose beauty never got old. Do not take away our hideaway from our busy noisy lives. It's a slide of paradise that should never be touched more than it already is. Let us enjoy it in peace. Don't let greed rule your hearts.
