Comments: I am opposed to any change at Holland Lake Lodge. I worked there for a period of time when I lived in Seeley Lake and love the history of the lodge as well as the beauty of the lake itself.

Being so close to the Bob Marshall Wilderness will be an enticement for more people to access the wilderness and add stress to the animals that live there.

People do not need to suck up every beautiful spot in the country.

The Forest Service needs to get back to managing the forests. If a fire were to start in the Bob due to a nitwit hiking in there, I believe your policy is to let it burn.

So it is irresponsible to allow this project to go forward.
