Comments: No! This development plan is absurd. Why would a lakeside resort need a "water sports facility?" Why a welcome center? It's not Glacier Park. Why would a quiet lodge on a dead end road at the entrance to a wilderness area need a 13,000 square ft lodge? To be profitable? Common sense suggests these are neither appropriate nor necessary for profitability. The lodge has not been operating at a loss for the past 20 years.

Holland Lake is the jewel of the Swan for many Montana families. This plan is out of touch, out of scale, and inappropriate for the setting.
