Comments: My husband and I have visited Holland Lake and stayed at the lodge for the past 11 years. The location is phenomenal. We go back because the surroundings are spectacular, despite the run-down condition of the place. We have urged Christian again and again to upgrade facilities (cabin latches that don't latch, stained sinks, poor air circulation, old bedding, etc., etc.)

The current proposal, with that enormous restaurant and massive new lodge is definitely an overstretch. The community will NEVER allow that kind of expansion. Christian and POWDR company will need to submit a new plan that improves the property while maintaining the rustic character of the original lodge. Right now, the community sees the proposal as nothing more than a money grab.
