Comments: "Our values are not California or New York," she said. "We're from Utah. Our values align very closely with the values you have here in Montana."

Please, many of us have been to Utah.

We know the score. We have seen what you created.

The low paying jobs will go to foreign workers, just like all of your other resorts.

Stop flattering yourselves. We have dealt with the pushy/wealthy problem here for many years and are very experienced at resisting.
