Comments: I was born and raised in Great Falls. I moved away in 2014 after I joined the military, and since then my plan has always been to move back home to MT. It pains me to see the state that I love being sold to the highest bidder. Public lands being restricted by developers and out of state interests. Why should the Montana PUBLIC be misled and misinformed about what is happening with PUBLIC land? The public cannot, at the very least, be given accurate information? This expansion will be the beginning of the end for the lake. I hate what Montana seems to have become.
