

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/10/2022 4:24:26 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The existence of this trail should stop the practice of killing goats in Olympic National Park. More people will be accessing the park and the current practice of hunting and shooting goats puts people in danger. Also goats who were previously relocated may use the trail to migrate back home. Migratory animals are not invasive. The park service should be protecting these animals and not systemically killing them.