Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/30/2022 12:16:41 AM
First name: James
Last name: Greene
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I am against clear cutting in general and especially clear cutting of such an excessive amount of acreage. This amount of forest devastation would in no doubt have a negative and long-term affect on wildlife populations and will result in flooding and excessive erosion. Selective cutting to enhance the ecosystem, remove diseased trees, and improve wildlife habitat is the more appropriate approach. Furthermore, chemical application to remove undergrowth will have widespread negative affects on the bee population and would result in irreversible contamination.