Comments: I'm writing to add another voice in opposition to this logging project. We just watched our brothers and sisters become homeless overnight, lose their children and everything they own because of thoughtless greedy senseless projects like this. If you take away these trees you strip the soil, you kill living creatures and their habitats and you move Kentucky backwards in efforts to be apart of effecting positive change in the way we take care of the land, the earth and each other. Please consider killing this idea, this project, instead of critters and creatures and humans and family's.

We know better. We must do better.
