

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/5/2022 9:59:18 PM

First name: Max

Last name: Rubinstein

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello,

I am writing to express my amazement that the forest service would go ahead with the Jellico vegetation management project. By using misleading phrasing and terminology, clear cutting of this old growth forest is being reimagined as beneficial.

I ask that you stop this project and look into using existing timber plantations to meet your need for wood sources. There are very few old growth spaces left in this country and the last thing we should be doing is cutting down another one

Thanks.