

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/5/2022 11:47:02 PM

First name: Shawna

Last name: McCown

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The mountains in Kentucky have been used and abused for far too long and it is absolutely ridiculous that clear cutting Jellico Mountain is being allowed.

We need the trees in the ground to prevent deadly landslides and help combat climate change and habitat destruction.

Kentucky needs to be a leader in protecting and repairing forests, not more destructive practices in the name of "progress" and profit.