

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/6/2022 4:29:46 AM

First name: Laura

Last name: Everett

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Bike trails are a valued use of our public lands, and serve many public benefits. We need to decrease conflict on increasingly populated trails by opening new bike trails in Central Oregon. Bike trails still take up much less space than public lands designated for motorized use or cattle grazing, both environmentally unsustainable practices.