Comments: Say NO. Please do not allow the imbalanced trade happen. Public lands offer the most to the ones who cannot afford big private ranches. Any trade should be in the interest of the greatest number of people who need public land to recreate. This doesn't seem to meet any reasonable standards of a fair trade and only Montanans who depend on our public lands will be negatively affected while the out of state rich vacationers who stand to benefit the most, reap the benefits.
