

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/13/2022 4:43:38 PM

First name: Jill

Last name: Paul

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing to oppose the land swap as it currently stands. This is an apples for oranges exchange where the public is left with poorer higher elevation hunting grounds compared to current public land holdings. Some stream access is also lost for anglers, as is some trail access. While I do support a land swap in future to help avoid conflict with private landowners, the public should be given a fair shake.