

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/14/2022 3:33:16 PM

First name: Rae

Last name: Fitzpatrick

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose this land exchange as it is a blatant conflict of interest on the Forest Service's part, benefits the rich, and negatively impacts recreation, habitat, and public land access. The Forest Service should do a full EIS and include public meetings and information sessions. The Crazy Mountains are a public land area with a long past of rich people blocking public access for everyone. Let's not make it easier for them to continue to do so.