

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/15/2022 6:15:51 PM

First name: Daniel

Last name: Ibarra

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Alternative 1 the No Action Alternative is the only one you should even consider. This whole process should revert back to choosing a location that is in the recreational plan in the Forest Service designation area. The Ochoco National Forest is a unique opportunity for the public to enjoy the natural state of things. I would hate to see these resources be misused and end up with user trails all through it. The potential for permanently displacing wildlife to private grounds is unacceptable.