Comments: Dear Slater Turner and Ochoco National Forest,

I support the full 52-mile mountain bike trail project at Lemon Gulch. This will allow riders to spread out and not be clustered together. Federal land should be available to everyone: local or visitor, rancher or biker, hiker or dog walker, white, brown, black, or green.

I have recreated in this area in all seasons for many years. On a recent camping trip, I was appalled at the amount of garbage and erosion caused by ATVs/4x4s. In my experience, service groups - like COTA - also collect garbage and mitigate damage, leaving the forest better than they found it.

Thank you for your consideration.
