Comments: I am super excited to hear about continued improvements to some of the best trails our area has to offer. The variety of uses and multiple options for points of access are part of the appeal for exploring our public lands. I do hope that some of our organic small town charm can be preserved in the layout and construction of new improvements as well as preservation of natural scenery. I look forward to hearing about new sections of trail and putting in some work days to help bring this vision to reality.
